

Guitar on The Alameda Festival coming on Saturday, August 25th

What: Our impressive line-up of Classical Guitarists will treat you to guitar music from around the world spanning many musical eras. You will hear baroque, classical, romantic, Latin, 20th century, contemporary and jazz influenced styles. Composers include, among others, Bach, Barrios, Brouwer, Carcassi, Lauro, Sojo, Sor, Villa-Lobos & York. These guitarists represent a growing number of young, talented, up-and-coming guitarists from the South Bay Area who will undoubtedly impress you with their virtuosity and musicianship. Jon Sharp is your host and lead performer.

When: Saturday morning, August 25, 8:30AM – 12:30PM

Where: The Alameda and Hanchett Avenue (1345 The Alameda, San Jose)

Who: Sponsored by the Alameda Business Association (ABA), the San Jose Redevelopment Agency, and the Shasta Hanchett Park Neighborhood Association in cooperation the South Bay Guitar Society (SBGS).

Why: Guitar on The Alameda is one of a series of festivals taking place on the last Saturday of each month during the summer. The SBGS actively encourages guitarists of all ages through educational and performance opportunities.

Every Saturday morning at the Farmers Market on The Alameda, we offer the freshest fruit, vegetables, flowers and confectionary. Our market serves as the venue for the Guitar on The Alameda Festival in addition to our last festival of the summer:

Next: September 29: Dance on The Alameda